Dear Mr. Hussein,

I apologize for the vulgar language that I directed toward you in the store. My behavior was inappropriate, unacceptable and wrong. I take full responsibility for what I said to you. My behavior is wrong on a personal level and because I am a judge. I am a representative of the judiciary and it is critical that I maintain the conduct and the character so that all people regard and perceive a judge's ability to carry out judicial functions and responsibilities with integrity, impartiality and competence. My behavior did not reflect those qualities.

I know that I am held to a high standard of conduct because I am a judge. My behavior was improper and irresponsible and did not promote public confidence in our judiciary.

My behavior violated the Judicial Canons 1, 2 and 4(A)(2) and 4(A) (3). I have read all the Canons repeatedly.

I have learned from this experience.

I hope this letter helps to make things right.

Respectfully,

Judge Jacqueline Schwartz
